State Officer Election Process

1. HOSA members running for a state office will serve concurrently as the president of their district and as the state officer determined through the selection process.
2. Each region is encouraged to submit qualified candidates for election as a state officer by the published state conference deadline. Candidates may be high school sophomores, juniors or seniors who are currently a HOSA member in good standing (paid affiliation with local, state, and national HOSA). There is no limit to the number of candidates that may be submitted from any one chapter.
3. Postsecondary/Collegiate chapters may submit qualified candidates for the position of Postsecondary/Collegiate Vice President. There is no limit to the number of candidate submitted from any one chapter.
4. A selection committee appointed by the NC HOSA Executive Director will judge applications and transcripts. After screening, selected applicants from each region will be invited to participate in state officer screening. Candidates must receive at least a minimum score of 31.5 out of 45 (transcript, essay, application/resume) in order to be considered to run for a position on the state executive council.
5. The top 4 applicants from each region will advance to the on-site screening process. The on-site screening process will include a written test on HOSA knowledge and parliamentary procedure, a 2-minute prepared oral presentation with the topic to be selected by NC HOSA, and an interview by a committee appointed by the NC HOSA Executive Director.
6. After the oral presentation, interview, and test, the two applicants from each region with the highest total scores will be announced as candidates. Efforts are made to prevent unopposed candidates.
7. During the NC HOSA State Conference, the two candidates from each region with the highest scores will run against each other for a state office. Candidate speeches will be given during the NC HOSA Annual Business Session and candidates will be voted on by the Voting Delegates.
8. State Officers will be announced and installed during the Recognition Session and will serve as a state officer and a region representative.
9. Runner-ups will serve as Region Vice Presidents. In the event a state officer cannot fulfill his/her duties, the Region Vice President may be asked to assume those duties.
10. The Postsecondary/Collegiate Vice President serves on the Executive Council. These candidates:
 - a. Will follow a similar election process.
 - b. May come from any school in the state.
 - c. A candidate should be a current Post secondary/Collegiate member or may be a graduating high school senior who plans to join the Postsecondary/Collegiate Division.
 - d. Will serve as vice president of the Postsecondary/ Collegiate Division.

11. After each state officer is elected by popular vote, offices of President and Vice President will be assigned based on the greatest total points earned during the application/election process.
12. Points will be awarded as follows:
 - a. Application/Resume 21 points
 - b. Transcript 9 points
 - c. Essay 15 points
 - d. Written Test 25 points
 - e. Oral Presentation 15 points
 - f. Interview 15 points
13. The term of office for NC HOSA Officers runs from May 1 through April 30.
14. State officers who go to school out of state will be required to fulfill the duties of their office regardless of distance.
15. State officers who fail to attend required meetings or fail to adhere to HOSA policy regarding behavior and conference rules will be subject to removal from office (See HOSA Code of Conduct).

State Officer Election Process

Read the following carefully. If you have any questions, please contact the NC HOSA State Officer Advisor or Executive Director.

1. Complete the officer application and print/make a copy for your records. Upload required forms during the online application process by the published State Conference deadline. Mail all original documents to the following address:

NC HOSA
PO BOX 659
Sylva, NC 28779

2. All NC HOSA officer candidates and elected state officers must be an active member of their local HOSA chapter, must be interested in healthcare, and must maintain a “B” cumulative average, or 3.0 GPA. Failure of elected officers to meet grade requirements will result in probation and evaluation by the NC HOSA Board of Directors.

3. Applicants who pass the screening process will give a 2-minute speech during the Annual Business Session to the voting delegates. Verbal campaigning is allowed – but NO campaign materials are allowed

Nomination Form for North Carolina Executive Council Applicant

By attending HOSA events, the student consents to North Carolina HOSA taking photos/video/audio of the student during the events. North Carolina HOSA is authorized to use and publish these photographs/videos/audio recording in print and/or electronically and may use these photos/videos/audio recordings for any lawful purpose, including for example: publicity, illustration, advertising, and website content.

Dance Dress and Conduct

Attending the HOSA dance is a privilege. At the discretion of the HOSA advisors, chaperones, and/or security, any student failing to abide by the dance guidelines or showing disrespect will be asked to leave the dance. Any advisor can ask the student to leave. Advisors MUST have a chaperone present if any of their students are at the dance.

Students must be in HOSA Dance attire, as outlined in the North Carolina HOSA Dance Code. No inappropriate or provocative dancing will be tolerated. Students are not allowed to sit on another student's shoulders or body surf.

Code of Conduct

Due to legal restrictions, it is necessary that all students complete this form to be eligible to attend any North Carolina HOSA event. The original form should be maintained by the local advisor and travel with the advisor to all conferences. Please attach a copy of this form to be kept by North Carolina HOSA. Please Type or Print all information. This form is considered incomplete without a handwritten signature in either blue or black ink.

A good reputation enables you to take pride in your organization. HOSA members have an excellent reputation of standards to uphold. Your conduct at any HOSA function should enhance the reputation that is being established.

1. State Officer conduct is the responsibility of the officer and monitored by the local chapter advisor, the Executive Director/State Advisor, and the State Officer Advisor.
2. State Officers must keep their advisors informed of their activities and whereabouts at all times.
3. State Officer name badges and proper attire must be worn at all times.
4. State officers are expected to attend all workshop sessions, be on time, and show respect to all presenters.
5. State officers are to report any accidents, injuries, or illnesses to their local advisors and state officer advisor immediately.
6. If a State Officer is responsible for stealing, vandalism, or improper behavior, the student and his/her parent/guardian will be expected to pay any damages. Violators will be removed from the conference at their parents/guardian's expense and be removed from office.
7. State Officers may NOT use or have in their possession any drugs, alcohol, tobacco, or electronic cigarettes at any time. Violators will be removed from the conference at their parent's/guardian's expense and be removed from office.
8. Students are expected to follow the policies of their school and local Board of Education at all times.
9. Students who violate the Code of Conduct at any Regional, State or International HOSA function will forfeit any rewards/recognition earned at the function where the violation occurred and could be sent home at their parent's/guardian's expense.

11. State Officers should have a cell phone during term of office.
12. State Officers should have access to a computer and internet during term of office.
13. State Officers will have a professional email account. They are expected to check twice daily.
14. State Officers will respond to all emails, texts, and voicemails from the Executive Director and State Officer Advisor.
15. All communication on social media should be positive and appropriate.
16. State Officers will be in official HOSA uniform or the official informal uniform whenever representing HOSA.

State Officer Travel Policies and Permission Form

Please read the following carefully and check items you give permission. You are responsible for all maintaining insurance throughout the year. Should any information change, please update the appropriate forms and resubmit them to NC HOSA.

1. NC HOSA officers must dress in official uniform when representing NC HOSA.
2. The NC HOSA Executive Director must approve all state officer travel and other expenditures pertaining to NC HOSA prior to their occurrence. Expenditures will be based on the NC HOSA budget for the year.
3. Any local chapter requesting a State Officer to visit their school for any reason will need prior approval from the Executive Director and/or State Officer Advisor and will assume responsibility and expenses for the officer's travel, expenditures, etc.
4. After election, the state officers' leadership training, Executive Council meetings, and Conference expenses (meals, lodging, and travel) will be partially or completely assumed by NC HOSA as specified in the NC HOSA budget. The state officer will be notified in advance of these amounts.
5. Officers must submit receipts and a completed reimbursement form within 2 weeks of the occurrence in order to receive reimbursement. Meals and lodging will not be reimbursed without a receipt.
6. NC HOSA, National HOSA, and employees thereof, cannot be held responsible for injuries to an officer when traveling on HOSA business.
7. It is the state officer's responsibility to secure his/her transportation to and from required meetings. Officers are reimbursed for mileage at the state rate per mile for one round trip per required meeting. Officers may choose alternate forms of transportation with prior approval by the NC HOSA Executive Director and/or State Officer Advisor, provided the cost does not exceed 10% above the anticipated mileage cost.
8. NC HOSA officers are expected to participate in all state officer activities as outlined by the NC HOSA Executive Director. Failure to attend a required meeting/function could result in probation or removal from office. It is the officer's responsibility to obtain the appropriate permission from parents, local HOSA advisor, and principal to attend state officer meetings/functions.
