Code of Conduct

A good reputation enables you to take pride in your organization. HOSA members have an excellent reputation of standards to uphold. Your conduct at any HOSA function should enhance the reputation that is being established.

- State Officer conduct is the responsibility of the officer and monitored by the local chapter advisor, the Executive Director/State Advisor, and the State Officer Coach.
- State Officers must keep the State Officer Coach and/or Executive Director informed of their activities and whereabouts at all times.
- State officers are expected to attend all workshop sessions, be on time, and show respect to all presenters.
- State officers are to report any accidents, injuries, or illnesses to their local advisors and state officer coach immediately.
- If a State Officer is responsible for stealing, vandalism, or improper behavior, the student and his/her parent/guardian will be expected to pay any damages. Violators will be removed from the conference at their parents/guardian's expense and be removed from office.
- State Officers may NOT use or have in their possession any drugs, alcohol, tobacco, or electronic cigarettes at any time. Violators will be removed from the conference at their parent's/guardian's expense and be removed from office.
- State Officers are expected to follow the policies of their school, local Board of Education, NC HOSA, and HOSA Inc. at all times.
- Students who violate the Code of Conduct at any Regional, State or International HOSA function will forfeit any rewards/recognition earned at the function where the violation occurred and could be sent home at their parent's/guardian's expense.
- No students/guests of the opposite sex are allowed in a hotel room together without chaperone approval and if chaperone approval, the door must be open at all times.
- State Officers should have a cell phone during their term of office.
- State Officers should have access to a computer and reliable internet during their term of office.
- State Officers will have a professional email account. They are expected to check it at least twice daily.
- State Officers will respond to all emails, texts, and voicemails from the Executive Director, State Officer Coach, and others in a timely manner.
- All communication on social media should be positive and appropriate.
- State Officers will be in official HOSA uniform or the official informal uniform whenever representing HOSA.
- State Officers should conduct themselves in a professional manner at all times.

Local Advisor Expectations

- See to it that the state officer follows his/her expectations as listed in the State Officer Application.
- The state officers are supported by North Carolina HOSA.
- The state officers are under the direction of the North Carolina HOSA Executive Director/State Officer Coach. They will travel with NC HOSA. If time allows, they may be permitted to enjoy time with their local chapter, but please do not expect them to be with the local chapter during events.
- Accept responsibilities for their State Officer as requested by the NC HOSA Executive Director/State Officer Coach.
- Assist the State Officer at school, workshops, and conferences if requested.
- Assist the Executive Director/State Officer Coach as needed.
- Serve as the state officer's positive role model with dress, language, habits, assistance, ethics, etc.
- Understand that there is no extra compensation to serve in this position.
- Understand that because of responsibilities with state officers, event travel may need to be adjusted to meet arrival/departure requirements of the state officer.

Dance Dress and Conduct

Attending the HOSA dance is a privilege. At the discretion of the HOSA advisors, chaperones, and/or security, any student failing to abide by the dance guidelines or showing disrespect will be asked to leave the dance. Any advisor can ask the student to leave. Advisors MUST have a chaperone present if any of their students are at the dance. Students must be in HOSA Dance attire, as outlined in the North Carolina HOSA Dance Code. No inappropriate or provocative dancing will be tolerated. Students are not allowed to sit on another student's shoulders or body surf.

By attending HOSA events, the student consents to North Carolina HOSA taking photos, video, and audio of the student during the events. North Carolina HOSA is authorized to use and publish these photographs/videos/audio recording in print and/or electronically and may use these photos/videos/audio recordings for any lawful purpose, including for example: publicity, illustration, advertising, and website content with no expectation of compensation.

State Officer Travel Policies

- NC HOSA officers must dress in official uniform when representing NC HOSA.
- The NC HOSA Executive Director must approve all state officer travel and other expenditures pertaining to NC HOSA prior to their occurrence. Expenditures will be based on the NC HOSA budget for the year.
- Any local chapter requesting a State Officer to visit their school for any reason will need prior approval from the Executive Director and/or State Officer Coach and will assume responsibility and expenses for the officer's travel, expenditures, etc.
- After election, the State Officers' leadership training, Executive Council meetings, and Conference expenses (meals, lodging, and travel) will be assumed by NC HOSA as specified in the NC HOSA budget and Policy and Procedure.
- Officers must submit mileage amounts to the Executive Director within 1 week of the occurrence in order to receive reimbursement. One round trip will be reimbursed.
- NC HOSA, International HOSA, and employees thereof, cannot be held responsible for injuries to an officer when traveling on HOSA business.
- It is the state officer's responsibility to secure his/her transportation to and from required meetings. Officers are reimbursed for mileage at the state rate per mile for one round trip per required meeting. Officers may choose alternate forms of transportation with prior approval by the NC HOSA Executive Director and/or State Officer Coach, provided the cost does not exceed the anticipated mileage cost.
- NC HOSA officers are expected to participate in all state officer activities as outlined by the NC HOSA Executive Director. Failure to attend a required meeting/function could result in probation or removal from office. It is the officer's responsibility to obtain the appropriate permission from parents, local HOSA advisor, and principal to attend state officer meetings/functions.
- NC HOSA State Officers may be transported in personal vehicles of the NC HOSA Executive Director and NC HOSA State Officer Coach. They may also be transported via public/private transportation with the NC HOSA Executive Director and/or the NC HOSA State Officer Coach.
